

Local Water Restrictions and Allocations

Written by Administrator - Jet Video

Tuesday, 02 February 2010 23:17 - Last Updated Wednesday, 03 February 2010 00:21

At Think Water Swan Hill we want to help you use your water in the most efficient and effective way possible. We know that our business relies on you the customer being able to utilise our most valuable resource. So we want to make sure that not a drop is wasted.

Our suppliers are constantly researching new techniques and improving and developing their products to better manage water in our current climate.

To find out about any recent developments in the industry come and see our helpful staff.

Lower Murray Water Restrictions Information